' Bankers

'Bankers in the said Town, (being the Treasurers appointed by the Subscribers, or a Committee of them, 'for receiving such Subscriptions,) and a considerable Number of Forces has accordingly been raised and 'embodied within the said County: And whereas it would greatly tend to promote the Object of the said 'Recommendation, if the Money raised by virtue of the said Acts as aforesaid was applied towards de- 'fraying the Expences of raising and embodying Troops within the said County for the Purpose aforesaid, 'in Aid of the Sums raised and to be raised by Subscription for the like Purpose:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Persons to whom any of the Money assessed, collected, or raised as aforesaid, by virtue of the said Acts, or any of them, has been paid, their respective Executors or Administrators, shall, and are hereby required, within forty Days next after the passing of this Act, to pay such Money to the said Treasurers, in equal Parts or Proportions, whose Receipt for the same shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Persons respectively paying in such Money; and in Default of Payment of such Money, or any Part thereof as aforesaid, the same shall and may be recovered by Action at Law to be brought in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in the Names or Name of the said Treasurers, or either of them, or of any one or more of the said Subscribers; any Law or Statute to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Persons so paying Money, and all concerned in raising it, indemnified.

II. And be it further enacted and declared, That the respective Persons who shall pay the Money received by them under or by virtue of the said Acts, or any of them, as aforesaid, into the Hands of the said Treasurers, or either of them, in pursuance of this Act, their respective Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, Lands, Tenements, Goods, and Chattels shall, from and immediately after such Payment, and that all Officers and other Persons whomsoever who have or ought to have been concerned, or interfered, in the raising, collecting, or assessing any such Money as aforesaid, under or by virtue of any such Act or Acts as aforesaid, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be, and are hereby respectively indemnified, and absolutely acquitted and discharged of and from the same, and all Actions, Suits, and Prosecutions, for or on account thereof, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if such Money had been fully raised and paid unto, and a Receipt given for the same, by his Majesty's Receiver General of the Land Tax for the County of Derby, in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to or in anywise concerning the raising and training the Militia of this Kingdom.

Application of the Money by the Treasurers.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Treasurers shall, and are hereby authorized and required, out of the Money which shall come to their Hands by virtue of this Act, in the first Place, to pay the Charges and Expences incident to and attending the obtaining and passing of this Act, and after Payment thereof, all the Remainder of the Money which shall come to the Hands of the said Treasurers by virtue of this Act, shall be applied towards raising, embodying, and training Troops within the said County, for the internal Defence of this Kingdom, in such Manner as the Persons who are or shall be appointed by any Meeting or Meetings of the said Subscribers, for applying and disposing of the Money raised or to be raised by Subscription as aforesaid, shall from Time to Time direct or appoint.

Surplus, if any, to be applied as the Quarter Session shall direct.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if, after the Troops which shall have been raised within the said County, pursuant to the said Recommendation, or by virtue of this Act, shall be disbanded or disembodied, and all Expences attending the same shall have been fully discharged, there shall be any Surplus of the Money raised by virtue of the said Acts, or any of them, as aforesaid, remaining in the Hands of the said Treasurers, or either of them, such Surplus shall be applied for such public Purpose within the said County, as the Justices of the Peace for the said County shall, at some General Quarter Session, order or direct: Provided nevertheless, that no such Application of the said Surplus as aforesaid shall be directed by the Justices at such Quarter Session, unless Notice thereof be given three Times in some Newspaper published in the said County, at least fourteen Days next preceding such Quarter Session.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That neither this Act, nor any Commission or Commissions which shall be granted by virtue thereof, nor any Proceedings which may be had under the same, shall in any Manner revoke, alter, prejudice, or affect any Commission or Commissions heretofore granted by virtue of the said Act of the twenty-seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, or of the said Act hereby repealed, or any Proceedings under the same respectively, further or otherwise than in such Commission or Commissions, which shall be so granted by virtue of this present Act, shall be provided, expressed, and declared.

CAP. LVI.

An Act to continue and amend an Act, made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Encouragement of the British Fisheries.—[5th May 1795.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for the more effectual Encouragement of the British Fisheries; which Act was to continue in 'force from the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, for the Space and Term of 'seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas an Act 'was passed in the twenty-seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, to extend the Provisions of the said 'Act: And whereas it is expedient that the said first mentioned Act, together with the Alterations and 'Amendments made in the same by the last mentioned Act, should be continued for a limited Time, with 'Amendments therein:' Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, passed in the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, together with the Alterations and Amendments made therein by the said Act passed in the twenty-seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, shall be and continue in force from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, for the Space and Term of two Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament. 26 Geo. III Cap. 81, and 27 Geo. III. Cap. 10, recited, and continued for 2 Years.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Buss or Vessel which shall clear out of some Port in Great Britain for the said Fishery, between the first Day of June and the twentieth Day of November in one and the same Year, and shall proceed immediately upon the said Fishery, shall entitle the Owner or Owners thereof to the Bounties granted by the said Acts, or either of them, in the same Manner as if such Buss or Vessel had cleared out of some Port in Great Britain between the first Day of June and the first Day of October in one and the same Year; any Thing in the said Acts, or either of them, to the contrary notwithstanding. Vessels clearing out between June 1 and Nov. 20, entitled to Bounties.

III. And be it further enacted, That for all Herrings which shall be landed from any Boat or Vessel not entitled to the Bounty of twenty Shillings per Ton, but entitled to the Bounty of one Shilling per Barrel, granted by the said Act passed in the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, and which shall afterwards be properly salted and cured, there shall be paid a Bounty of one Shilling per Barrel, in Addition to the Bounty of one Shilling per Barrel, granted by the said Act, for such Herrings. Herrings not entitled to 20s. per Ton, but to 1s. per Barrel, afterwards cured, to be paid 1s. per Barrel more.

IV. 'And whereas Doubts have arisen whether Herrings which shall have been landed at the fishing 'Places upon the Coasts of Great Britain, and sprinkled with Salt, to be afterwards carried Coastwise in 'Bulk to the Residence of the Curers, were not subject to Forfeiture;' to remove which Doubts, and for the greater Encouragement of the British Fishery, be it hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Curers of Herrings, residing in any Part of Great Britain, shall and may, during the Time of each and every Season of the British Fishery, carry Coastwise in Bulk, free of any Duty whatever, Herrings, or Cod, Ling, Hake, and Salmon, actually taken in the Herring Fishery, that shall have been landed and deposited in any Warehouse or Store under the Care and Inspection of the Salt Officers at any Place of Fishery upon the British Coasts, and there sprinkled with Salt taken out of any Warehouse under the Revenue Locks, for the Uses of the British Fishery, which Salt shall have been deposited, during the Time of the Fishery, in any Store or Warehouse for the Purpose only of sprinkling such Herrings or other Fish so taken, to preserve them until the same shall be afterwards carried Coastwise to that Part of Great Britain where such Herrings or other Fish are to be entirely cured, or otherwise disposed of: Provided always, that it shall be expressed in the Cocquet, Transire, or other Coast Dispatch to accompany the said Herrings and other Fish, that no Bounty whatever has been paid or claimed upon the said Herrings and other Fish at any Time previous to the shipping of the same to be carried Coastwise; and that the said Herrings and other Fish shall be subject to all the Restrictions, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, now in force under this, any other Act or Acts for the Security of the Duties on Salt. Herrings, &c. sprinkled with Salt on landing, may be carried Coastwise in Bulk free of Duty. Cocquet to express that no Bounty has been paid on such Fish.

V. 'And whereas by an Act, passed in Scotland in the third Session of the first Parliament of her late 'Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for advancing and establishing the Fishing Trade in and about this 'Kingdom, it is among other Things enacted, That it shall be lawful to the Sheriffs, Baillies of Regalities, 'and Magistrates of Burghs, or any having Commission from them, not only to visit on all Occasions the 'curing and packing of Herring or White Fish in their respective Bounds, and also to pitch on any Barrel 'after it is made up and marked, and cause break open the same, and raise the Herrings, if they think fit, 'from the very Bottom; and in case they be not cured or packed as in the said Act is ordained, or that they 'be broken, bruised, spilt, or not gutted Herring or Fish among them, the said Sheriffs, Baillies, Magistrates, 'or others commissioned by them, after the same is clearly proven by experienced and famous Witnesses, Act in Scotland of 3d Session of 1st Parliament of Queen Anne, recited,

'are thereby ordained to secure the whole Casks where the said insufficient Herring or White Fish shall be 'found, and the Persons to whom they belong shall pay for each Last one hundred Marks Scots, the Half to 'be given to the Discoverer and the Rest to the Poor of the Parish, and proportionally for smaller Quantities 'of such insufficient Herring or White Fish; and the said insufficient Herring or Fish shall be discharged to 'be exported at any Time thereafter;' be it enacted, That so much of the said in Part recited Act as relates to the securing of Casks of Herrings for or in respect of any ungutted Herrings being found therein, and to any Fine or Penalty to be paid by the Person or Persons to whom any Casks of Herrings shall belong in respect of any ungutted Herrings being found therein, and to the discharging of the Exportation of any Casks of Herrings for or in respect of any ungutted Herrings being found therein, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

and in Part repealed.

Arrestments to specify the Names of Vessels when Bounties are to be attached by Commissioners of Customs in Scotland.

VI. 'And whereas it frequently happens that Arrestments are used in the Hands of the Commissioners of 'the Customs in Scotland, or their Receiver General, for the Purpose of attaching the Bounty that may be 'due to Proprietors of Vessels employed in the said Fishery, but in which no Specification is made of the 'Name of the Vessel whereof the Bounty is meant to be attached, whereby much Inconvenience and 'Embarrassment often arise, there being many Persons of the same Name Proprietors of different Vessels, 'which renders it difficult and uncertain with Precision what particular Bounty is intended to be attached, 'whereby Payments have some Times been made notwithstanding such Attachments, at other Times 'Delays have been occasioned in Payment of Bounties not intended to be attached, all which might be 'remedied if in the Arrestments the Name of the particular Vessel was specified;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Arrestments to be used in the Hands of the said Commissioners or Receiver General, for the Purpose of attaching Bounties due to Owners of any of the said Vessels fitted out for the said Herring Fishery, the Schedule and Execution of the Arrestment shall specify the Name of the particular Vessel or Vessels whereof the Person against whom the Arrestment is used may be Owner, and of which his Share of the Bounty is meant to be attached, otherwise such Arrestments shall be null and void.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, during the Continuance of this Act, any Person, being a Subject or Inhabitant of the United Provinces, who has been employed in carrying on the Herring, Cod, Ling, Haddock, or other White Fisheries, or the Fisheries carried on in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, or the Turbot Fishery, or in building Vessels, or in cutting Whalebone, or in making Nets or Barrels, or in preparing Salt for the said Fisheries, shall come into this Kingdom with Intent to reside herein, and shall go before some Justice of the Peace, Sheriff Depute or Substitute, or Principal Magistrate of some City or Town of this Kingdom, or before the Principal Officer of his Majesty's Customs in some Port of this Kingdom, and shall take the Oath of Allegiance to his Majesty, and shall obtain a Certificate of his having taken such Oath, which Oath and Certificate such Justice of the Peace, Sheriff Depute or Substitute, Magistrate, and Officer respectively, are hereby authorized and required to administer and give, on Payment of no greater Fee than two Shillings; and if such Person shall produce or transmit such Certificate to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland respectively, and shall make it appear to the Satisfaction of such Commissioners, by Oath or Examination before them, or before Persons duly authorized by them for that Purpose, that he is a Subject or Inhabitant of the said United Provinces, and had been employed in some one or other of the said Fisheries, or in building Vessels, or in making Nets or Barrels, or in preparing Salt for the said Fisheries, and that he hath come into this Kingdom with Intent to reside herein, and to carry on some one or other of the said Fisheries, Trades, or Employments, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England, or any four or more of them, or for the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in Scotland, or any three or more of them, to grant to such Person a Certificate thereof; and such Person shall be forthwith entitled to enter for Importation, Duty free, and afterwards to re-export any Cargo of Fish, or the Produce thereof, caught in any of the said Fisheries, which he may then have brought into the Ports of this Kingdom, and shall from thenceforth be authorized to carry on from the said Ports, the said Fisheries, or any of them, or to exercise in any Place therein any of the said Trades or Employments, and to import and export such Fish or Oil, or other Produce thereof, into or from any Ports of this Kingdom, in the same Manner, and with all the same Advantages, as any British Subject, and be entitled to all such Bounties, Premiums, and Emoluments, as are granted by either or both of the Acts continued by this present Act, and to no other, subject nevertheless, in the Case of claiming such Bounties, to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures; and such Person shall thereupon be entitled to become the Master or Mariner of any British Ship or Vessel, employed in carrying on any of the said Fisheries.

Such Persons, Owners in Whole or in Part of Vessels, and bringing them into this Kingdom, may, by Order of the Privy Council, have them registered, and be entitled to the Privileges of British-built Vessels.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Person or Persons who shall have qualified, or shall qualify himself or themselves in Manner before directed, being the Owner in Whole or in Part of any Ship or Vessel heretofore employed in some one or other of the said Fisheries, has brought or shall bring any such Vessel into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, and shall prove, in the Manner directed in an Act, passed in the twenty-sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Increase and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation, having taken the Oath hereunto annexed, instead of the Oath required by the said Act, that he or they is or are the sole Owner or Owners, or that he or they, and some other Person or Persons, being Subjects or Inhabitants of the said United Provinces, who shall have come to this Kingdom, and have proved the same in Manner before directed, or some British Subject or Subjects, are the sole Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, to order such Ship or Vessel so owned to be registered, and to have a Certificate thereof, and such Ship or Vessel shall by virtue thereof become entitled to the Privileges of a British-built Ship or Vessel, under the Regulations and Restrictions herein-after mentioned.

IX. And be it further enacted, That during such Time as the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel shall continue to be resident within this Kingdom, it shall be lawful for such Ship or Vessel to carry on any of the said Fisheries, and to import and export into and from this Kingdom, and to carry to the Port of any Country in Europe, the Fish caught in any such Fisheries, and the Oil and other Produce thereof, and such Ship or Vessel shall be entitled to the like Advantages as any British-built Ship or Vessel employed in any of the said Fisheries, and to all such Bounties, Premiums, and Emoluments, as are granted by either or both of the Acts continued by this Act, and to no other, subject nevertheless, in case of claiming such Bounties, to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures; and every such Ship or Vessel may import from any such Foreign European Port, in return for such Fish, Oil, or Produce, any Articles which any British-built Ship may by Law import from thence, subject nevertheless to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as any British-built Ship employed in the like Trade: Provided always, that every such Ship or Vessel employed in the Manner before-mentioned, shall be manned, with the Number required by Law, either of British Seamen, or of Subjects or Inhabitants of the said United Provinces, who have come to and continue to reside within this Kingdom, and have qualified themselves in Manner before directed.

While the Owners reside in the Kingdom such Vessels may import the Fish caught, export them, and import in return such Articles as British-built Ships, if properly manned.

Instead of Payment of Licence Duties in Advance by Distillers, and Abatement of a Proportion to those making Spirits for Exportation to England, as directed by recited Acts, a Bond to be given as herein directed.

V. Provided always nevertheless, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to entitle any Person or Persons to make, rectify, or compound Spirits, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for Exportation from thence to that Part of Great Britain called England, save and except such Persons as were authorized and empowered so to do by the Laws in force immediately before the passing of this Act.

No Person to make Spirits in Scotland for Exportation to England, not authorized to do so before passing this Act.

VI. And, for the more effectually preventing the Removal, carrying, or conveying, any such Spirits, made or distilled within the Limits of that Part of Scotland called The Highlands, as described in the said recited Act of the thirty-third of his present Majesty, out of the said Limits across the Line or Bounds therein described, into that Part of Scotland called The Lowlands, or Southern Parts of the Kingdom; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall sell, deliver, receive, or buy, or knowingly permit or suffer to be sold, delivered, received, or bought, any such Spirits so removed, carried, or conveyed, contrary to the Prohibitions in the Acts made in the twenty-fifth and thirty-third Years of

of his present Majesty, or either of them, the Person or Persons so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds.

and on Persons retailing Spirits in Scotland without Licence.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall retail any Spirits made or distilled from Malt, Corn, Grain, Barley, Beer, Bigg, or other British Materials, and which Spirits are commonly called and known by the Name of Aqua Vitæ, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, without first taking out an Excise Licence authorizing such Person or Persons to retail such Spirits, in the Manner required and directed by an Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties on Coals, Culm, and Cinders, brought or carried Coastwise into Scotland, and for granting other Duties or Licences to sell certain distilled Spirituous Liquors in lieu thereof, and renewing the same Yearly, so long as such Person or Persons shall continue to retail such Spirits, he, she, or they, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of fifty Pounds.

33 Geo. III. Cap. 61, and

VIII. 'And whereas by an Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Regulation of Distilleries in Scotland, and the Exportation of British-made Spirits from England to Scotland, and from Scotland to England, for a limited Time, it was enacted, that the several Rates and Duties granted and imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament then in force upon Low Wines or Spirits for Home Consumption, or upon Worts, Wash, and other Liquors, used in Scotland in the Distillation of Spirits, and upon any Licence required to be taken by any Distiller or Maker of Spirits, from Corn, Malt, or other Materials, or by any Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits in Scotland, (save only and except any Arrears then due in respect of such Rates or Duties,) should be discontinued from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety three: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether by the said recited Act the additional Duties imposed for a limited Time by another

31 Geo. III. Cap. 1, recited, and

Act, made in the thirty-first Year of the Reign aforesaid, among other Things for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon Spirits made in Scotland and imported into England, for Spirits made or manufactured in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and imported or brought from thence into that Part of Great Britain called England, and payable by the Importer before the landing thereof, and which were continued and made perpetual by another Act made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign aforesaid, are not repealed:' Now to obviate all such Doubts, it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, the additional Duties imposed by the latter on Spirits made in Scotland and imported into England, declared not repealed by the former Act.

That the said additional Duties for Spirits made or manufactured in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and imported or brought from thence into that Part of Great Britain called England, are not repealed by the said recited Act of the thirty-third Year of the Reign aforesaid, intituled, An Act for the Regulation of Distilleries in Scotland, and the Exportation of British-made Spirits from England to Scotland, and from Scotland to England, for a limited Time.

33 Geo. III. Cap. 61, recited;

IX. 'And whereas by the said Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign aforesaid, certain Excise Duties were imposed for a limited Time therein mentioned, on Licences to be taken out by Distillers of Spirits in Scotland, for Exportation, from thence to that Part of Great Britain called England; and certain other Excise Duties were also thereby imposed on Licences to be taken out by Distillers in England, for Exportation, from thence to Scotland: And whereas the said Licence Duties first above-mentioned were, by an Act made in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign aforesaid, continued and made perpetual; and it is expedient in like Manner to continue and make perpetual the Licence Duties last above mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, and Duties thereby imposed on Licences to Distillers in England to export Spirits to Scotland, made perpetual.

That the Duties of Excise imposed by the said Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign aforesaid, for or in respect of Licences by the said Act directed to be taken out by Distillers of Spirits, in that Part of Great Britain called England, for Exportation from thence to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be, and the same are hereby continued and made perpetual, and that the same shall be paid and payable by such Persons, at such Times, and in such Manner, and subject and liable to such Repayments, Allowances, and Abatements, and under and subject to such Penalties and Forfeitures, as the said Duties were payable by the said Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament in force at and immediately before the passing of this Act; and the same shall continue to be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, (the Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted,) and be carried to, and made Part of, the Consolidated Fund.

Recovery and Application of Fines.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, by this Act created and imposed, shall be sued for, levied, recovered, or mitigated, by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, is or may be sued for, levied, recovered, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively, and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, (not otherwise directed by the said recited Act of the thirty-third Year of his present Majesty's Reign,) shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall discover, inform, or sue for the same.

Duties to be raised, &c. according to the Laws now in force.

as by the said Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force concerning the several Matters and Things respectively for or in respect whereof any Duty is by this Act imposed, is directed or prescribed; and that all the Provisions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Powers, Authorities, Rules, and Directions, mentioned in and contained in the said Acts respectively, (except as aforesaid,) shall be, and the same are hereby continued, and made perpetual; and the same shall be practised, and put in Execution, as well for the raising, receiving, levying, recovering, securing, or paying, the said several and respective Duties by the said Act of the thirty-third Year aforesaid, as by this Act imposed; and for the making any Repayment, Allowance, or Abatement, in Manner in the said Act directed, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were particularly repeated and enacted in this Act.

and to be deemed an Addition to the Revenue for defraying the encreased Charge occasioned by any Loan of this Session, &c.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies arising, or to arise, by the said Rates and Duties, or any of them, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan made, or Stock created or to be created, by virtue of any Act or Acts passed or to be passed in this Session of Parliament; and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenues; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said Rates and Duties, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

'WHEREAS the Punishment of Persons convicted of Felony, under or by virtue of an Act, made 'in the first Year of the Reign of King James the First, intituled, An Act to restrain all Persons 'from Marriage until their former Wives and former Husbands be dead, has not proved effectual to deter 'wicked and evil-disposed Persons from being guilty of the Offence therein described:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons within his Majesty's Dominions of England and Wales, being married, or which hereafter shall marry, do, at any Time from and after the passing of this Act, marry any Person or Persons, the former Husband or Wife being alive, and shall be in due Manner convicted thereof under the said Act, shall be subject and liable to the same Penalties, Pains, and Punishments as, by the Laws now in force, Persons are subject and liable to who are convicted of Grand or Petit Larceny.

CAP. LXVIII.

An Act for vesting, for a certain Term of Years, in the Right Honourable Henry Seymour Conway, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, the sole Property of a Kiln or Oven, by him invented, for burning Lime, and for the Use of Distillers and Brewers, and for other beneficial Purposes.—[19th May 1795]

Recital of his Majesty's Letters Patent, dated Jan. 1, 1782.

'WHEREAS his most Excellent Majesty King George the Third, by his Letters Patent under the 'Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date at Westminster the first Day of January in the twenty-'second Year of his Reign, did give and grant unto Henry Seymour Conway, his Executors, Admini-'strators, and Assigns, his especial Licence, full Power, sole Privilege, and Authority of making, using, 'exercising, and vending, within that Part of his Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain called England, the 'Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, his Invention of a Kiln and Oven for the Purpose 'of saving great Part of the Expence employed in burning Lime, as also in the several Branches of the Distil-'ling and Brewing Business, and for other beneficial Purposes, where the Use of Fire is concerned, for the 'Term of fourteen Years; with a Proviso, obliging the said Henry Seymour Conway, by an Instrument in 'Writing under his Hand and Seal, to cause a particular Description of the Nature of the said Invention to 'be inrolled in his Majesty's High Court of Chancery, within four Calendar Months after the Date of 'the said recited Letters Patent: And whereas the said Henry Seymour Conway did, in pursuance of the said 'Proviso, cause a particular Description of the said Invention to be inrolled in the said High Court of Chan-'cery, upon the twenty-third Day of April in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and 'eighty-two; which Description is in the Words and Form, or to the Effect following; (that is to say,)

Specification of the Invention.

"The said Invention consists of a Kiln and Oven so contrived that the same Fire is made to serve at the "same Time the different Purposes of burning Lime and of giving Heat to Stills or Boilers placed over them, "sufficient for distilling, or any other useful Purpose they may be employed in, while the Fuel used, being "Coal, is not wasted or consumed, but turned into an useful Cinder, generally called Coake, by which it "acquires rather an additional Value, in some Places to a considerable Amount. The Oven, which should "be made of good Windsor or other Bricks, best able to resist the Force of the Fire, has a dead or flat "Hearth, on which the Coal is laid. Near the said Oven, and most conveniently opposite to the Mouth "of it, a Lime Kiln is placed, the Bottom of which may be on a Level with the Floor of the Oven, "having an Opening into the Oven, through which the Flame or Heat is drawn into the Bottom or lower "Part of the Lime Kiln, which being something narrower below, should be nearly cylindrical, or rather "drawing inward above, so as to give the greatest Effect to the Heat: Over the Kiln and Oven are placed "the Stills or other Vessels proposed to be employed, in such Manner as not to be immediately open to the "Fire in the Oven or the burning Lime, but to receive their Heat through Flues disposed and governed by "Registers inserted in them, in such Manner as to increase or moderate the Heat in each Part at Pleasure, "so that the different Operations by the Stills or Boilers et cætera, may be carried on independent of each "other; for this End both the Oven and Kiln should have strong and thick Crowns or Coves, at the "springing of which the Flues may most conveniently be made, through which the Flame or Heat is to be "conveyed to the Stills or Coppers placed over them, or, if thought necessary, a double or false Crown "might be added, so as more effectually to repress the Heat when required; observing, that when the "Vessel over the Oven is to be kept cool, the Registers of the Flues leading to it from the Oven are to be "closed, and the Heat thereby confined to the Lime Kiln alone; and when the Vessel over the Lime Kiln "is to be cooled, the Registers under that being in the same Manner closed, the Heat is then carried off "through a Flue or Chimney erected for that Purpose, or may even again be employed for some farther "useful Purpose at Pleasure: Also, when the Heat is admitted to the Vessel over the Oven, it passes from "thence by other Flues into the Middle or higher Part of the Lime Kiln; these have also Registers in them, "which either exclude or admit the Flame through those Channels, or prevent its returning from the Lime "Kiln to the Vessel over the Oven, when that is to be kept cool. It is fit that the Registers in the "different Flues should be of good and solid Metal, well framed, and should be double, having a Space "between them; into which Space, if the outward Air is also admitted by a small Opening for that Pur-"pose, which may be stopped at Pleasure, it will greatly contribute to the more perfect suppressing of the "Heat. From this Construction it is plain that, with slight Variations, on the same Plan and Principle, "this Invention may be employed for one or more of the above Purposes, with one, two, or even more Stills "or Boilers, and with or without the Lime Kiln, according to the Situation or Business intended."

His Majesty's Letters Patent for Scotland recited.

'And whereas his said most Excellent Majesty, by his other Letters Patent, under the Seal appointed by 'the Treaty of Union to be made use of in place of the Great Seal of Scotland, bearing Date the tenth Day 'of November, in the twenty-sixth Year of his Reign, did give and grant unto the said Henry Seymour 'Conway, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, the like Licence, Power, Privilege, and Authority, 'of making, using, exercising, and vending, his said Invention, within that Part of his Majesty's Kingdom 'of Great Britain called Scotland, for the like Term of fourteen Years; with a Proviso obliging him, by 'Writing under his Hand and Seal, to cause a particular Description of the Nature of the said Invention to 'be inrolled in his Majesty's Chancery in Scotland, within four Months after the Date of the said recited 'Letters Patent; in pursuance of which Proviso the said Henry Seymour Conway did cause such Description 'to be inrolled in the said Chancery of Scotland, upon the twenty-third Day of January one thousand seven 'hundred

'hundred and eighty-six, in the same Words and Form, and to the same Effect, as that herein-above mentioned as inrolled in the High Court of Chancery of England: And whereas the said Invention, in the 'Opinion of competent Judges, who have inspected the same, and examined the said Henry Seymour Conway's 'Method of conducting the Process thereof for the Purposes above mentioned, and also of other Persons who 'have actually used the same, will be attended with many beneficial Consequences to the Public, as thereby 'the Expence of the Whole or the greatest Part of the Fuel used in those Processes to which the same 'Invention is applicable will be effectually saved, and in some Cases a Gain or Profit will be absolutely 'obtained upon the Fuel so employed: And whereas the said Henry Seymour Conway devoted a very consider- 'able Portion of Time, and expended very large Sums of Money, to the Detriment of his private Fortune, 'in bringing his said Invention to Perfection; but notwithstanding the Advantages resulting to the Public 'from the Use of the said Invention, and although thirteen Years of the Term contained in the said first- 'mentioned Letters Patent, and nine Years of the Second, are elapsed, he has not been able hitherto to 'reimburse himself the great Expence which he has incurred: And whereas, upon the Expiration of the said 'Letters Patent, which will happen the first within one Year, and the latter within five Years from the 'present Time, the Public at large will (unless restricted) be entitled to use and exercise the Invention thereby 'secured, which will be a very great Prejudice to the said Henry Seymour Conway, and deprive him of the 'Means of reimbursing himself the Expences which he has sustained in bringing his said Invention to 'Perfection; and as several Years may elapse before the Use of the said Invention can become so general as to 'produce any considerable Profit, the Expiration of the said Letters Patent will entirely prevent him from 'being reimbursed his said Expences: And whereas the said Henry Seymour Conway, under these Circum- 'stances, is induced to apply to the Legislature to have the Terms granted by the said Letters Patent 'prolonged, and his Property in the said Invention secured for such Time as may enable him to be reimbursed 'his said Expences, and to obtain a Recompence adequate to his Labour, Time, and Expence, employed 'about the said Invention:' To the End, therefore, that the said Henry Seymour Conway may be enabled, by the Prolongation of the Terms contained in the said Letters Patent, to obtain an adequate Recompence for his Labour, Time, and Expence, in and about his said Invention; may it please your most Excellent Majesty, (at the humble Petition and Request of the said Henry Seymour Conway.) that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, the sole Privilege and Advantage of making, using, exercising, and vending, the said Kiln and Oven, herein-before particularly set forth and described, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, shall be, and are hereby declared to be vested in the said Henry Seymour Conway, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for and during the Term of twenty Years; and that he the said Henry Seymour Conway, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and every of them, by himself and themselves, or by his and their Deputy or Deputies, Servants or Agents, or such others as he the said Henry Seymour Conway, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall at any Time agree with, and no others, from Time to Time, and at all Times during the Term of Years herein-before mentioned, shall and lawfully may make, use, exercise, and vend, the said Kiln and Oven within the Kingdom of Great Britain, by the Method herein-before described, in such Manner as to him the said Henry Seymour Conway, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall in their Discretions seem meet; and that the said Henry Seymour Conway, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall, and lawfully may have and enjoy the whole Profit, Benefit, Commodity, and Advantage, from Time to Time coming, growing, accruing, and arising, by reason of his said Invention, for the said Term of twenty Years, to have, hold, receive, and enjoy, the same, for and during and to the full End and Term of twenty Years as aforesaid; and that no other Person or Persons, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, shall at any Time during the said Term of twenty Years, either directly or indirectly, make, use, or put in Practice, the said Invention, or any Part of the same, nor in anywise counterfeit, imitate, or resemble, the same, nor shall make or cause to be made any Addition thereunto, or Subtraction from the same, whereby to pretend himself or themselves the Inventor or Inventors, Devisor or Devisors thereof, without the Licence, Consent, or Agreement, of the said Henry Seymour Conway, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, in Writing under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, first had and obtained in that Behalf, upon such Pains and Penalties as can or may be justly inflicted upon such Offenders for their Contempt of this Act, and further to be answerable to the said Henry Seymour Conway, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, according to Law, for his and their Damages thereby occasioned.

Great Expence of the Invention.

Sole Privilege of making and vending the Invention vested in the Right Hon. H. S. Conway, his Executors, &c. for 20 Years.

II. Provided always, and be it hereby declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prejudice or hinder any Person or Persons from making, using, exercising, and vending of a Kiln and Oven for the Purposes aforesaid, by any Method which is not the Invention of the said Henry Seymour Conway as aforesaid, or which has been publicly used or exercised by any other Person or Persons before the Time of the Date of the said Letters Patent herein recited; but that all such Methods which are not at present of the said Invention of the said Henry Seymour Conway, or are not particularly specified in this Act, shall be and remain to the Public, and to the respective Inventors thereof, as if this Act had never been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that every Objection in Law competent against the said Patents shall be competent against this Act, to all Intents and Purposes, except so far as relates to the Term hereby granted.

Act not to hinder the using any Invention, which is not the Invention of H. S. Conway.

III. Provided always, That if the said Henry Seymour Conway, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, or any Person or Persons who shall at any Time during the said Term of twenty Years have or claim any Right, Title, or Interest in Law or Equity, of, in, or to the Power, Privilege, or Authority, of the sole Use and Benefit of the said Invention, shall make any Transfer or Assignment, or pretended Transfer or Assignment Privileges not to be transferred to more than five Persons, &c.

Assignment of the said Liberty or Privilege hereby granted, or any Share or Shares of the Benefit or Profits thereof, or shall declare any Trust thereof, to or for any Number of Persons exceeding the Number of five; or shall open or cause to be opened any Book or Books for Public Subscriptions to be made by any Number of Persons exceeding the Number of five, in order to the raising any Sum or Sums of Money, under Pretence of carrying on the said Liberty or Privilege hereby granted; or shall by him or themselves, or his or their Agents or Servants, receive any Sum or Sums of Money whatsoever of any Number of Persons, exceeding in the Whole the Number of five, for such or the like Intents or Purposes; or shall presume to act as a Corporate Body; or shall divide the Benefit of the Liberty or Privileges hereby granted into any Number of Shares exceeding the Number of five; or shall commit or do, or procure to be committed or done, any Act, Matter, or Thing whatsoever, during such Time as such Person or Persons shall have any Right or Title, either in Law or Equity, which shall be contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of an Act of Parliament, made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for the better securing certain Powers and Privileges intended to be granted by his Majesty, by two Charters, for Assurance of Ships and Merchandizes at Sea, and for lending Money upon Bottomry, and for restraining several extravagant and unwarrantable Practices therein mentioned; or in case the said Power, Privilege, or Authority, shall at any Time become vested in or in Trust for more than the Number of five Persons, or their Representatives, at any one Time, otherwise than by Devise or Succession, (reckoning Executors and Administrators as and for the single Person whom they represent, as to such Interest as they are or shall be entitled to in Right of such their Testator or Intestate,) that then, and in every of the said Cases, all Liberties and Advantages whatsoever hereby granted shall utterly cease, determine, and become void; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

An Act to prevent the Removal of Poor Persons, until they shall become actually chargeable.—[22d June 1795.]

13 and 14 Car. II. Cap. 12, recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the 'Second, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom; reciting, That 'whereas, by reason of some Defects in the Law, poor People are not restrained from going from one Parish to another, and therefore do endeavour to settle themselves in those Parishes where there is the best 'Stock, the largest Commons or Wastes to build Cottages, and the most Woods for them to burn and

'destroy; and when they have consumed it, then to another Parish, and at last become Rogues and Vagabonds, to the great Discouragement of Parishes to provide Stocks where it is liable to be devoured by 'Strangers; for Remedy whereof it is thereby, amongst other Things, enacted, That it shall and may be 'lawful, upon Complaint made by the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, to any 'Justice of the Peace, within forty Days after any such Person or Persons coming so to settle as aforesaid, 'in any Tenement under the yearly Value of ten Pounds, for any two Justices of the Peace, whereof one 'to be of the Quorum, of the Division where any Person or Persons that are likely to be chargeable to the 'Parish shall come to inhabit, by their Warrant, to remove and convey such Person or Persons to such Pa-'rish where he or they were last legally settled, either as a Native, Householder, Sojourner, Apprentice, or 'Servant, for the Space of forty Days at the least, unless he or they give sufficient Security for the 'Discharge of the said Parish, to be allowed by the said Justices: And whereas many industrious poor 'Persons, chargeable to the Parish, Township, or Place, where they live merely from Want of Work 'there, would in any other Place, where sufficient Employment is to be had, maintain themselves and Fa-'milies without being burthensome to any Parish, Township, or Place; and such poor Persons are for the 'most Part compelled to live in their own Parishes, Townships, or Places, and are not permitted to inha-'bit elsewhere, under Pretence that they are likely to become chargeable to the Parish, Township, or 'Place, into which they go for the Purpose of getting Employment, although the Labour of such poor 'Persons might, in many Instances, be very beneficial to such Parish, Township, or Place: And whereas 'the Remedy intended to be applied thereto, by the granting of Certificates, in pursuance of the Act passed 'in the eighth and ninth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for supplying 'some Defects in the Laws for the Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom, hath been found very ineffectual; 'and it is necessary that other Provisions should be made relating thereto:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the said in Part recited Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of King Charles the Second, as enables the Justices to remove any Person or Persons that are likely to be chargeable to the Parish, Township, or Place, into which they shall come to inhabit, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed; and that from thenceforth no poor Person shall be removed, by virtue of any Order of Removal, from the Parish or Place where such poor Person shall be inhabiting, to the Place of his or her last legal Settlement, until such Person shall have become actually chargeable to the Parish, Township, or Place, in which such Person shall then inhabit, in which Case two Justices of the Peace are hereby empowered to remove the Person or Persons, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Appeal, and with the same Powers, as might have been done before the passing of this Act with respect to Persons likely to become chargeable.

So much of recited Act as enables Justices to remove Persons likely to be chargeable to Parishes, repealed; and no Persons to be removed till they become chargeable.

II. 'And whereas poor Persons are often removed or passed to the Place of their Settlement during the 'Time of their Sickness, to the great Danger of their Lives;' for Remedy thereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any poor Person shall from henceforth be brought before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, for the Purpose of being removed from the Place where he or she is inhabiting or sojourning, by virtue of any Order of Removal, or of being passed by virtue of any Vagrant Pass, and it shall appear to the said Justice or Justices that such poor Person is unable to travel, by reason of Sickness or other Infirmity, or that it would be dangerous for him or her so to do, the Justice or Justices making such Order of Removal, or granting such Vagrant Pass, are hereby required and authorized to suspend the Execution of the same until they are satisfied that it may safely be executed, without Danger to any Person who is the Subject thereof; which Suspension of, and subsequent Permission to execute the same, shall be respectively indorsed on the said Order of Removal, or Vagrant Pass, and signed by such Justice or Justices; and no Act done by any such poor Person continuing to reside in any Parish, Township, or Place, under the Suspension of any such Order, shall be effectual, either in the Whole or in Part, for the Purpose of giving him or her a Settlement in the same; and the Charges proved upon Oath to have been incurred by such Suspension of any Order of Removal may, by the said Justices, be directed to be paid by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Parish or Place to which such poor Person is ordered to be removed, in case any Removal shall take place, or in case of the Death of such poor Person before the Execution of such Order; and if the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Parish, Township, or Place, to which the Order of Removal shall be made, or any or either of them, shall, upon the Removal or Death of such poor Person ordered to be removed, refuse or neglect to pay the said Charges within three Days after Demand thereof, and shall not within the same Time give Notice of Appeal as is herein-after mentioned, it shall and may be lawful for one Justice of the Peace, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause the Money mentioned in such Order to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons so refusing or neglecting Payment of the same, and also such Costs attending the same, not exceeding forty Shillings, as such Justice shall direct; and if the Parish, Township, or Place, to which the Removal of such poor Person is made, or was ordered to be made, before the Death of such Person as aforesaid, be without the Jurisdiction of the Justice of the Peace issuing the Warrant, then such Warrant shall be transmitted to any Justice of the Peace having Jurisdiction within such Parish, Township, or Place as aforesaid, who, upon Receipt thereof, is hereby authorized and required to indorse the same for Execution: Provided nevertheless, that if the Sum so ordered to be paid on Account of such Costs and Charges exceed the Sum of twenty Pounds, the Party or Parties aggrieved by such Order may appeal to the next General Quarter Sessions against the same, as they may do against an Order for the Removal of poor Persons by any Law now in being; and if the Court of Quarter Sessions shall be of Opinion that the Sum so awarded be more than of Right

Justices may suspend the Removal of sick Persons:

Charges incurred by such Suspension to be paid by the Officers of the Parish to which they are ordered to be removed, which may be levied with Costs.

If Costs exceed 20l. Appeal may be made to the Quarter Sessions.

Right ought to have been directed to be paid, such Court may and is hereby directed to strike out the Sum contained in the said Order, and insert the Sum which in the Judgment of such Court ought to be paid; and in every such Case the said Court of Quarter Sessions shall direct that the said Order so amended shall be carried into Execution by the said Justices by whom the Order was originally made, or either of them, or in case of the Death of either of them, by such other Justice or Justices as the said Court shall direct: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to alter or abridge the Power of Justices of the Peace to pass or punish Vagrants in the Manner and under the Circumstances set forth in an Act, passed in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds, and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction (except so far as regards the Power of suspending the Vagrant Pass, in the Manner and for the Causes before-mentioned).

This Act not to alter the Power of Justices to pass or punish Vagrants by 17 Geo. II. Cap. 5, except as to Suspension

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person coming into any Parish, Township, or Place, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be enabled to gain any Settlement therein by Delivery and Publication of any Notice in Writing.

No Person to gain a Settlement by Delivery and Publication of a written Notice;

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Person or Persons whatsoever, who shall come into any Parish, Township, or Place, shall gain a Settlement in such Parish, Township, or Place, by being charged with and paying his, her, or their Share, towards the Public Taxes or Levies of the said Parish, Township, or Place, for and on Account, or in respect of any Tenement or Tenements, not being of the yearly Value of ten Pounds.

nor by paying Taxes for a Tenement of less than 10*l.* yearly Value.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That every Person who shall have been convicted of Larceny, or any other Felony, or who by the Laws now in being shall be deemed a Rogue, Vagabond, idle or disorderly Person, or who shall appear to any two or more Justices of the Peace of the Division wherein such Person shall reside, upon the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, to be a Person of evil Fame, or a reputed Thief, such Person not being able to give a satisfactory Account of himself or herself, or of his or her Way of living, shall be considered as a Person actually chargeable within the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, to the Parish in which such Person shall reside, and shall be liable to be removed to the Parish of his or her last legal Settlement by the Order of the said Justices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, of the Division where any such Person shall reside.

CAP. CXXII.

An Act to enable His Majesty, under certain Regulations, to erect independent Burghs of Barony in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and for removing certain Difficulties as to the granting of Leases in Towns and Villages on the Fishing Coasts of that Kingdom.—[26th June 1795.]

'WHEREAS Doubts have arisen whether by an Act, passed in the twentieth Year of the Reign of 'his late Majesty King George the Second, for taking away and abolishing the Heritable Jurisdictions 'in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the Prerogative of his Majesty to erect free and independent Burghs of Barony in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland was taken away or abolished: And 'whereas the Erection of such independent Burghs of Barony may be very beneficial for encouraging the 'Erection of Villages, which are particularly necessary upon the Sea Coasts of Scotland, in those Places 'where the Fishings are carried on, and which are generally at a great Distance from the ordinary Courts 'of Law:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to erect such independent Burghs of Barony, in such Parts of the Sea Coasts of Scotland, where the Fisheries are or shall be carried on, in the usual Manner practised before the passing of the said Act of the twentieth of his late Majesty; and that it shall and may be lawful for all Persons who are enabled by an Act, passed in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for incorporating certain Persons by the Name and Stile of 'The British Society for extending the Fisheries and improving the Sea Coast of this Kingdom,' and to enable them, when incorporated, to subscribe a Joint Stock, and therewith to purchase Lands, and build thereon free Towns, Villages, and Fishing Stations, in the Highlands and Islands in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and for other Purposes; and who have agreed or shall hereafter agree to sell or feu Lands to the said British Society, for the Purpose of erecting Villages and of encouraging the said Fisheries, to resign the same into the Hands of the said Barons of Exchequer in Scotland, for a new Charter thereof, and for erecting the same into independent Burghs of Barony, with Powers to the Inhabitants, or to such Descriptions of them as may be described in such Charter, to elect a Baron Baillie or Baillies, or other Magistrate or Magistrates, annually, in the same Manner as such Charters were usually made and granted before the passing of the said Act of the twentieth Year of his late Majesty, and with such Powers and Jurisdiction, Civil and Criminal, to the said Magistrate or Magistrates, as are reserved by the said Act to the Magistrates of independent Burghs of Barony then existing; and it shall be lawful for such Persons, after obtaining such Charter and Infeftment thereon, to grant in feu to the said Society such Lands, reserving such Feu Duty as shall be agreed upon; any Thing contained in the said Act of the twentieth of his late Majesty to the contrary notwithstanding.

20 Geo. II. Cap. 43, recited.

His Majesty may erect independent Burghs of Barony in certain Parts of Scotland, as practised previous to recited Act; and Persons selling Lands to the Society incorporated by 26 Geo. III. Cap. 106, may resign them to the Barons of Exchequer in Scotland, for erecting them into such Burghs, &c.

II. And be it enacted, That the Magistrate or Magistrates so elected annually shall, within the Limits of the said respective Burghs of Barony, have and exercise all the other Powers which now belong, or which shall hereafter belong, to any of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, by virtue of their respective Offices, without the Qualification in respect to Property usually required in the Case of other Justices of the Peace: Provided always, that the Justices of the Peace of the respective Counties within which the said Villages lie, shall have a concurrent Jurisdiction within such Villages with such Magistrate or Magistrates respectively: Provided also, that before any Report shall be made to his Majesty, in consequence of any Reference to the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, relating to the granting of such Charters, or any of them, due Notice shall be given to all such Persons as, in the Opinion of such Court, may be affected by the granting the same, in such Manner as the said Court shall direct, that they may be heard against the granting such Charters respectively, if they shall so think proper.

Magistrates within the Limits of such Burghs to exercise the Power of Justices concurrent with the County Justices. Previous Notice of Reports to his Majesty, relating to granting Charters, to be given Parties concerned.

III. 'And whereas, for promoting the Purposes of the said Act, the said British Society have purchased 'Lands for building Villages in several Places in the remote Parts of Scotland, and have agreed to grant

'Leases, renewable for ever, to such Persons as are inclined to settle there and to build Houses, with a View 'of carrying on the said Fisheries: And whereas many of the Settlers have not been taught to write, and 'cannot sign and execute legal and effectual Counterparts of such Leases otherwise than according to the 'Formalities required by the Law of Scotland in the Case of Persons who cannot write, which are, that 'two Notaries Public and four Witnesses shall be present when such Persons do affix their Mark to any 'Deed or obligatory Writing, and should attest the same, and that, from the great Distance of such Places 'from the Residence of any Notaries Public, great Expence and Delays have arisen, and must arise, in 'signing such Leases, which has retarded and must retard the Progress of such Villages;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such Settlers in any of the Villages erected or to be erected on any Lands purchased by the British Society for the Purposes aforesaid, to sign with their respective Marks if they cannot write, in the Presence of the Resident Minister of the nearest Church to such Settlement, and of two Elders of such Church, who shall attest the same, or in the Presence of the Sheriff Substitute, or of any Justice of Peace, of the respective Counties, and of two such Elders, who shall in like Manner attest the same, instead of two Notaries and four Witnesses; and that all Leases so signed by a Mark by the said Settlers, and attested in Manner aforesaid, shall be as binding and effectual in Law, as if the same had been signed in the Presence of two Notaries and four Witnesses, and that no Objection shall lie against the Validity of such Leases on Account of their being renewable for ever, any Law or Usage of Scotland to the contrary notwithstanding.

Leases signed by a Mark of Settlers on Lands purchased by the British Society, and witnessed by the Minister, &c. valid.
